THE SHIPBUILDER

1960

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Enid Taylor

We lovingly remember Mrs. Enid Taylor who out of her own generosity gave so willingly of her time and knowledge to enrich the lives of the students at Norwell High School.

DEDICATION

The class of 1960 proudly dedicates this year's SHIPBUILDER to Mr. Lowell A. Perry. We will always remember his contagious humor, the friendly chats in the hall, and the lively social studies classes. His efforts have been untiring, his advice invaluable and to him, our favorite, we pay tribute.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

MR. CLIFTON E. BRADLEY

SCHOOL SECRETARY

MRS EDITH DEVINE

GUIDANCE DIRECTOR

MR. HUGH CHANDLER

OUR PRINCIPAL

MR. FREDERICK A. SMALL

To the Class of 1960:

We live in an era that is fretted by many an irritant--both internal and external to our social being. The troubles and turmoils of our generation are such, indeed, as to "try men's souls." But, as the strength of steel results from fire and forge, so is the durability of character made manifest by the fears and frustrations through which the strong personality emerges victorious in its contention with the problems of life.

With every new challenge are equally new and fascinating opportunities.

Author Edgar Ansel Mower in his recent book, A GOOD TIME TO BE ALIVE, says:

"No personal experience can be more thrilling than a supreme adventure of the human race. Our western civilization is undergoing a decisive test . . . Its leadership is challenged. In being called upon to face that challenge, Americans are confronted with unequalled opportunity.

Ahead of them lies the great assignment of preserving the best part and shaping a richer future. If man's deepest greatness is his capacity to choose, to suffer and to enjoy, then happy is the generation born, like ours, to take part in earth-shaking events."

Class of 1960, consider well your opportunities. May your personal efforts be the stuff from which is shaped the glory and the honor of a bright tomorrow.

We hope you have enjoyed looking back through 1959 and 1960. We have tried to retain in these pages some of the life and spirit of Norwell High School. We hope that in years to come this SHIPBUILDER will bring back many pleasant memories.

We would like to express at this time our gratitude to our staff and to Mrs. Charles Gailey, our advisor. They have worked unceasingly to fill these pages with our memorable days at Norwell High.

Barbara, swell
so a swell
kid. Hope you do better in high school than I do.
Good luck in your future at N.H.S. Remember the fun we've had in
